(a) any defect in a lot, a subdivided building or its common property or limited common property;

(b) the liability of a subsidiary proprietor to bear the costs of or any part thereof for any work carried out by a management corporation or subsidiary management corporation, as the case may be, in the exercise of its powers or performance of its duties or functions conferred or imposed by this Act or the by-laws relating to the subdivided building or limited common property, as the case may be; or

(c) the exercise or performance of, or the failure to exercise or perform, a power, duty or function conferred or imposed by this Act or the by-laws relating to the subdivided building or limited common property, as the case may be.

(2) An order under subsection (1) may be made on —

(a) any person entitled to make an application under this section; or

(b) the chairperson, secretary or treasurer of a management corporation or subsidiary management corporation, or its council or executive committee.

(3) Any order made under subsection (1), except an order made with respect to the exercise or performance of, or the failure to exercise or perform, a power, duty or function conferred or imposed by this Act or the by-laws, may provide for the payment of damages not exceeding an amount that may be ordered by a District Court if the dispute had been the subject of civil proceedings in that Court.

(4) For the purposes of this section, where a management corporation or subsidiary management corporation has a discretion as to whether or not to exercise or perform a power, duty or function conferred or imposed on it by this Act or the by-laws, it shall be deemed to have refused or failed to exercise or perform that power, duty or function only if it has decided not to exercise or perform that power, duty or function.

(5) For the purposes of subsection (4), where an application is made to a management corporation or subsidiary management corporation to exercise a discretion referred to in that subsection, and the management corporation or subsidiary management corporation does not, before the expiration of 2 months after the making of the application —

- (a) exercise or perform a power, duty or function in accordance with the application; or
- (b) inform the applicant that it has decided not to exercise or perform that power, duty or function in accordance with the application, the management corporation or subsidiary management corporation, as the case may be, shall be deemed to have decided not to exercise or perform that power, duty or function.

(6) Nothing in subsection (1) shall empower a Board to make an order with respect to the exercise or performance of, or the failure to exercise or perform, a power, duty or function of a management corporation or subsidiary management corporation where that power, duty or function may, in accordance with any provision of this Act or the by-laws, only be exercised or performed pursuant to a unanimous resolution, a special resolution, a 90% resolution, a comprehensive resolution or a resolution by consensus.

(7) An order in respect of any matter dealt with in any other section in this Part shall not be made under this section.

(8) In any proceedings under this section with respect to any alleged defect in a lot or in any common property or limited common property situated immediately (whether wholly or partly) above another lot or any common property or limited common property, it shall be presumed, in the absence of proof to the contrary, that the defect is within that lot or common property or limited common property, as the case may be, above if there is any evidence of dampness, moisture or water penetration —

(a) on the ceiling that forms part of the interior of the lot, common property or limited common property, as the case may be, immediately below; or

Order to convene meetings

102. —(1) A Board may, on application and if it considers it to be in the interest of the management corporation or subsidiary management corporation, as the case may be, make an order appointing a person nominated by the applicant (and who has consented to that nomination) to convene —

(a) a meeting of the management corporation or subsidiary management corporation, as the case may be, if, after the first annual general meeting —

(i) there is no council or executive committee; or

(ii) the council or executive committee, as the case may be, does not appoint a person to fill the vacancy or vacancies in any office of that council or executive committee and have not convened a general meeting of the management corporation or subsidiary management corporation, as the case may be, for that purpose; or

(b) a meeting of the council of a management corporation or the executive committee of a subsidiary management corporation, as the case may be, if there is not elected a chairperson, secretary and treasurer of the council or executive committee after the first meeting of the council of the management corporation or the executive committee of the subsidiary management corporation, as the case may be,

for the purpose of electing or appointing a person or persons to fill the vacancy or vacancies in that office or those offices.

(2) Without prejudice to subsection (1), where a default is made by a management corporation or subsidiary management corporation in holding any general meeting (other than the first annual general meeting), a Board may, on application, order the management corporation or subsidiary management corporation, as the case may be, to convene a general meeting.

(3) Any meeting ordered under subsection (1) or (2) shall be convened and held within such time as is specified in the order.

(a) invalidate any resolution of, or election held by, the persons present at the meeting; or

(b) refuse to invalidate any such resolution or election.

(2) A Board shall not make an order under subsection (1) refusing to invalidate a resolution or election unless it considers —

(a) that the failure to comply with the provisions of this Act did not prejudicially affect any person; and

(b) that compliance with the provisions of this Act would not have resulted in a failure to pass the resolution, or have affected the result of the election, as the case may be.

[LT(S)A, s. 97]

Order where voting rights denied or due notice of item of business not given
104. —(1) Where, pursuant to an application by a person under this section, a Board is satisfied that a particular resolution would not have been passed at a general meeting of a management corporation or subsidiary management corporation but for the fact that the applicant —

(b) was not given due notice of the item of business pursuant to which the resolution was passed, the Board may order that the resolution be treated as a nullity on and from the date of the order.

(2) An application for an order under subsection (1) may not be made after 21 days after the date of the meeting at which the resolution was passed.

(3) Where —

(a) an order under subsection (1) is made in respect of a resolution making a by-law amending, adding to or repealing another by-law; and

(b) the by-law made pursuant to that resolution is in force, the by-law shall, subject to its having been or being amended, added to or repealed under section 32, 33 or 82, as the case may be, have force and effect on and from the date the order is so made to the same extent as it would have had if the resolution had not been passed.

[LT(S)A, s. 100]

Order revoking amendment of by-law
105. —(1) Where, pursuant to an application by any person entitled to vote at a meeting of the management corporation or subsidiary management corporation (including both a first mortgagee and a mortgagor of a lot), a Board considers that, having regard to the interest of all subsidiary proprietors in the use and enjoyment of their lots or the common property or (as the case may be) limited common property, an amendment or repeal of a by-law or addition of a new by-law should not have been made or effected, the Board may order that the amendment be repealed, that the revoked by-law be revived or that the additional by-law be repealed.

(2) When making an order under subsection (1) in respect of an exclusive use by-law referred to in section 33 or 82 (in relation to limited common property), a Board may direct the payment by the management corporation or subsidiary management corporation, as the case may be, of compensation to the subsidiary proprietor of the lot referred to in the by-law.

Where, pursuant to an application by a person entitled to vote at a meeting of a management corporation or subsidiary management corporation (including both a first mortgagee and a mortgagor of a lot), a Board considers that the management corporation or subsidiary management corporation, as the case may be, did not have the power to make a by-law purporting to have been made by it, the Board may make an order declaring the by-law to be invalid.

[LT(S)A, s. 96]

Order varying certain rates of interest

[LT(S)A, s. 98]

Order varying contributions, etc.

108. —(1) Where, pursuant to an application by a management corporation, a subsidiary management corporation, a subsidiary proprietor or a mortgagee in possession (whether by himself or another person), a Board considers that any amount levied or proposed to be levied by way of contributions —

(a) under section 40 or 41(3) or (4) in respect of a lot in a subdivided building where planning permission for the development of land was granted prior to 15th April 1976; or

(b) under section 41(3) or (4) in respect of a lot in a subdivided building where planning permission for the development of land was granted on or after 15th April 1976,

[LT(S)A, s. 99]

Order varying amount of insurance

109. —(1) Where, pursuant to an application by a subsidiary proprietor or the mortgagee of a lot, a Board considers that the amount for which the management corporation for the subdivided building concerned has insured under section 75 is not reasonable, the Board may order the management corporation to vary that amount to a specified amount.

(2) Where, pursuant to an application by an interested subsidiary proprietor or the mortgagee of a lot, a Board considers that the amount for which the subsidiary management corporation concerned has insured under section 79(6) is not reasonable, the Board may order the subsidiary management corporation to vary that amount to a specified amount.
