

MND COMMITTEE OF SUPPLY 2022 AN INCLUSIVE HOME AND LIVEABLE CITY FOR THE FUTURE

Keeping public housing affordable, accessible and inclusive

- Ethnic Integration Policy (EIP) Buyback Assistance to help EIP-constrained owners NEW
- Enhance Fresh Start Housing Scheme to make 2- and 3-room flats more affordable for second-timer families living in public rental flats with children
- Second Community Care Apartment pilot to be launched in Queenstown
- Community Advisory Panel on Neighbourhood Noise NEW

Creating a future-ready Built Environment (BE) sector

- $30 million Integrated Facilities Management/Aggregated Facilities Management (IFM/AFM) Grant to kickstart adoption of advanced technologies for FM industry NEW
- Extend schemes under the Construction Productivity and Capability Fund (CPCF) to support BE firms with transformation
- Increase funding for Cities of Tomorrow (CoT) R&D programme to support innovations in the BE sector

Sustaining progress with our Singapore Green Plan 2030

- Achieve higher sustainability standards with grants for building owners to offset cost of retrofitting NEW
- Increase R&D investments to support innovations in sustainable development
- Enhance our natural capital and expand urban greenery more intensively to transform Singapore into a City in Nature

Building an endearing and vibrant city

- Heritage Impact Assessment (HIA) framework for public projects with high impact to significant heritage sites NEW
- Public engagement exercise to develop future plans to strengthen Kampong Gelam NEW

For more information, visit
go.gov.sg/mndcos2022

